Use this form to transfer shares to a new owner or change the registered owners of your account. This form serves as your transfer instructions and your new application.

If you are transferring a 403(b), 457(b) or a business account, do not use this form. Please use the Transfer of Shares Ownership form, which can be downloaded from americancentury.com.

Investors using advisors: If transferring shares from an A, B, C, Advisor or R Class fund, the new owner must appoint a broker of record. Please enclose a change of broker/dealer form, obtained from your broker, along with this form or call us using the appropriate phone number on the back of this form.

Please provide American Century Investments® with the signature and documentation needed for your situation as described below. If you are transferring shares or changing account ownership because of the death of an investor, or if there is not an option listed for your situation, please call us at one of the phone numbers on the last page of this form for the appropriate paperwork.

Your telephone number in case we have questions about your request: ______________________________________

Please note:
• In many situations, American Century Investments will establish a new account with a new account number.
• If you have outstanding CheckWriting checks written against the current account, please leave sufficient funds in the current account to ensure payment.
• In situations of divorce, American Century Investments may require a signature guarantee for any of the scenarios listed as indicated or if one spouse requests it. You can find more information about signature guarantees in step 5.
• For transfers from taxable, non-money market accounts: The current owner may have chosen a cost basis method other than our default. Once transferred, we will use the default method of Average Cost in reporting cost basis for the newly established account. If a different method is desired, the new owner should complete a Cost Basis Election Form or contact us.

The new owner may then exchange to a different fund, if desired. If you want to change more than two accounts, please list the accounts on a separate piece of paper.

Signature Guarantee

Please refer to step 1 to determine whether a Signature Guarantee is required in your situation. When required for personal accounts, all account owners must sign and provide a Signature Guarantee; or for entity owned accounts, the number of signatures required by your entity governing documents must be Signature Guaranteed.

A Signature Guarantee is a warranty by the guarantor that the signature is genuine and that the person signing is competent and authorized to sign.

Many domestic banks, trust companies, credit unions, brokers, dealers, national securities exchanges, registered securities associations, clearing agencies and savings associations can provide a signature guarantee for you. The signature must correspond in every way, without alteration, with the name printed on the current account registration. Each guarantee must be an original ink stamp that states “Signature Guaranteed/Medallion Guaranteed.”

NOTE: Acknowledgement of signature by a notary public is NOT acceptable.

Please affix signature guarantee ink stamp below with appropriate signature, title of officer and date.

This signature section certifies your instructions on how to split your account. The new owner must sign in step 10 to certify their tax information and acknowledge our customer agreement.
